UPDATES FOR FUNDED ORGS

Tier I Certification

The Certification deadline for Tier I organizations is Friday, April 19, 2019.

Tier I organizations will provide certification presentations to the SCFD Board of Directors on Thursday, May 23 at Denver Zoo.

Tier II Qualification & Certification

Tier II organizations must submit their qualification and certification reports by the following dates:

Tier II Qualification:

4 p.m. on Wednesday, May 22, 2019

Tier II Certification:

4 p.m. on Wednesday, July 3, 2019

The 2019 income threshold for all organizations to qualify for Tier II is $1,695,039.78.

Tier III Grant Interviews and Allocations

Following the successful submission of a Tier III grant application, be sure that you have scheduled your Tier III grant interview with the cultural council of each county in which you have applied.

Contact your specific county liaison to schedule today. These interviews will be open to the public and are highly recommended or even required.

Resources for organizations

Collaboration and resource sharing is encouraged within the SCFD family. To support this effort, we'll provide brief mentions of resources organizations might be interested in learning about. If you would like your organization featured in this section, send an email to scfd@scfd.org.

Colorado Nonprofit Association

Colorado Nonprofit Association offers workshops to help organizations with areas such as Development, Strategic Planning, Storytelling, Grant Writing and many others.

If you would like to learn more or register for a workshop visit the Colorado Nonprofit Association today.

Popsicle's Partner

Community First Foundation

Build your skills. Expand your networks. Increase your impact.

Become a 2019-2020 SCFD Scholar by attending the 2019-2020 Nonprofit Pathway program at Red Rocks Community College. The Nonprofit Pathway at Red Rocks Community College is a nonprofit management certificate.

Employees or high-level volunteers of SCFD Tier III organizations are eligible to apply. Applications are strongly encouraged from individuals who identify as belonging to communities currently underrepresented in the nonprofit workforce. Applications for scholarships to attend the 2019-2020 academic program are being accepted through May 21, 2019. Applications and program information can be found here.

Scholarship funding is provided by the Special District Association, in partnership with the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District (SCFD) and Denver Arts and Venues.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD

The SCFD Board of Directors held their March meeting in Boulder.

Highlights from the meeting include:

- Presentations from Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art, WOW! Children's Museum, Frequent Flyers Aerial Dance, Longmont Museum and the City of Boulder's Office of Art + Culture.

You can read the full February meeting minutes on the SCFD website.

Thanks to the Colorado Chautauqua Association for hosting the board meeting. Colorado Chautauqua Association is the only year round operating Chautauqua in the U.S. Last year their cultural programs served 40,000 people. Learn more about the Colorado Chautauqua.

The next SCFD Board meeting will be held at Broomfield Dance at 555 Burbank St., Unit N. Broomfield, CO 80020.
