Resources for Good

Attorney Impact Award

The Volunteer Attorney Impact Award recognizes an outstanding attorney who has provided pro bono legal services to Colorado creatives and advanced CBCA's Colorado Attorneys for the Arts (CAFTA) program. This year's honoree is Dave Rein, Attorney at Erickson Kernell IP. He is an advocate for the arts through his pro bono legal service and education with CAFTA, as well as volunteer roles with 40 West Arts, Jefferson County Cultural Council and Mi Casa Resource Center. Thanks to Dave for all he does to keep our cultural community strong.

2022 Trainings offered by the Collaborative

Upstander Intervention: 3 p.m. – 4 p.m., Jan. 13

Presenter: Johnny Humphrey, Director of Inclusivity Services, The Center on Colfax. Often times we observe conflicts and situations but don't know how to intervene safely and effectively. Historically, anti-harassment courses have taught what not to do, but generally exclude techniques for what to do. This course provides effective strategies for identifying when a conflict is occurring and ways to safely intervene. We will discuss a variety of intervention strategies and apply them to different scenarios. Note: This training is appropriate for most audiences new to LGBTQ+ awareness.

Orientation: The Collaborative and the SCFD: 10 a.m. – 11 a.m., Feb. 17

Presenters: Kendal Zimmermann and Tim Murphy, Program Officers, SCFD Jannett Matusiak, Director, The Collaborative of the SCFD. For new employees or for those needing a refresher. What is the SCFD and how does it relate to my organization? What is the Collaborative and how can I participate? Learn how you can be professionally connected to our amazing art, culture and science community in the Denver-Metro area. This will be a general overview about the two organizations and how they are interrelated. All tiers welcome to attend.

Creating Accessible Digital Documents: 3 p.m. – 4 p.m., Feb. 22

Presenter: Emily Shuman, Director, Rocky Mountain ADA. Digital documents can often create barriers for people with disabilities. Many of these barriers are easy to remove with training around how people with disabilities use technology. In this course, participants will learn how people with disabilities use technology to access documents, characteristics of accessible documents, and practical tips for ensuring accessibility.
