DISTRICT ANNOUNCEMENTS

SCFD Welcomes Ray Gonzales to the SCFD Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Scientific & Cultural Facilities District is pleased to welcome Raymond H. Gonzales as the representative for Adams County. Gonzales was an assistant city manager in Brighton and Undersecretary of Labor for New Mexico. Gonzales is a Colorado native from Brighton. He has served as the Adams County Manager where he oversees a budget of approximately $514 million since 2017.

SCFD Day at the Capitol

Our second SCFD Day at the Capitol was an incredible success. With performances and exhibits filling the Capitol we were delighted to see elected officials, our organizations and the public celebrating SCFD. A special thank you to supporters in the State Senate and House of Representatives as well as Gov. Jared Polis for offering tributes and a proclamation confirming the value of SCFD to residents in the Denver metro area and beyond.

Popsicle's Partner

Education Roundtable Tier I, II, and III invited

Please join us for this free event. The Scientific and Cultural Collaborative (SCC), a membership organization of Tier I and Tier II SCFD funded organizations invite you to attend an Inter-Tier Education Roundtable to learn about two non-profits who assist both teachers and families. Come see how these two organizations can be a resource for you, educators and families you know. This is a great opportunity to meet peers from other SCFD cultural organizations who provide outreach. Light refreshments and ample free parking available.

Please RSVP: scienceandculture@outlook.com

Inter-Tier Education Roundtable
