Arts Education For All Forum

Arts Education For All Forum
Wednesday, April 3rd, 2019
McNichols Civic Center Building
4-8 PM

What could a commitment to arts education for all do for Colorado? How do we measure the impact of art education — and how can this inform practice? Join A+ Colorado, the City of Denver, and Colorado Business Committee for the Arts for this free event as we host special guests and hear from both local and national experts on the importance of arts education for all.

Confirmed panelists include Jane R. Best (Director, Arts Education Partnership), John-Claude Futrell (Education Director, Redline), Kristina Bad Hand (Chief Creative Director, áYA Studios LLC + Community Liaison, Indian Education, Jefferson County Public Schools)... with more to be announced shortly.

Scientific & Cultural Collaborative Alliance Project Grant

Attention Teachers in K-12 public schools in Adams, Boulder, Denver, and Jefferson Counties. Grant available!

The Scientific and Cultural Collaborative (SCC) is now accepting applications for the Alliance Project Grant, a two-year grant for a team of interdisciplinary teachers at a school. These areas include Science, Social Science, Language Arts, Visual Arts, Theatre and/or Music, Dance (if available) and other areas as requested. One school selected from each of the four counties listed above. (Arapahoe, Broomfield, and Douglas counties will be eligible in the 2020/2021 School Year.) Grant serves a segment of the school, 150-180 students. Funds vary but schools can receive up to $11,000 worth of programs, workshops, performances, field trips and assemblies from 27 arts, culture and science organizations in the Denver-

Metro area who are funded by the SCFD. Plus funds assist with buses and substitute teachers. This is an incredible opportunity!

Apply online at <https://www.sccollaborative.org/>

For more information contact: Jannett Matusiak, SCC Director, scienceandculture@outlook.com; 303-946-2089

Application Deadline is April 17.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD

The SCFD Board of Directors held their March meeting in Boulder.

Highlights from the meeting include:

- Presentations from Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art, WOW! Children's Museum, Frequent Flyers Aerial Dance, Longmont Museum and the City of Boulder's Office of Art + Culture.

You can read the full February meeting minutes on the SCFD website.

Thanks to the Colorado Chautauqua Association for hosting the board meeting. Colorado Chautauqua Association is the only year round operating Chautauqua in the U.S. Last year their cultural programs served 40,000 people. Learn more about the Colorado Chautauqua..

The next SCFD Board meeting will be held at Broomfield Dance at 555 Burbank St., Unit N. Broomfield, CO 80020.
